Both roles

Board members ensure there is good governance of the organisation. Trustees also act as ambassadors, promoting our work, developing new partnerships and opportunities for the future.

We are committed to ensuring our board reflects the communities we serve. By this we mean through race, gender, sexuality, age, language, ethnic / national origins, religion or belief, disability, financial status, where people live, or the experiences they have had. We specifically encourage applications from people who have lived experience of the Welsh language, supporting its development within Welsh culture; those with disabilities; and people of colour.

We are particularly looking for people who have experience in a leadership role, and those with strategic financial literacy and oversight.

A full induction programme will be provided.

Working positively as part of a team you will need to be able to offer your time and expertise, show good, independent judgement, think creatively and share ideas, have a willingness to speak your mind, understand and accept the legal duties, responsibilities and liabilities of trusteeship, respect confidences, and commit to adhering to the Nolan Committee's seven principles of public life (selflessness, integrity, objectivity, accountability, openness, honesty and leadership).

There are 2-3 other meetings a year where staff and trustees work together to focus on specific topics. Reading and preparation time are also required. You are encouraged to attend exhibition openings and events and to fulfil your role as an ambassador for our work within your networks. You should also be willing to contribute advice on your specific area(s) of experience / expertise throughout your term of office.

About Llantarnam Grange

Llantarnam Grange presents exhibitions and an extensive programme of education and engagement with the local community and our partners across Wales and the UK. Opened in 1966, we are located in a 19th Century manor house in the centre of Cwmbran. The building houses gallery spaces, a craftshop, café, and education and meeting rooms. We have engaged with audiences of up to 45,000 a year in our projects at the centre, other venues and in outreach activities. The love that our audiences have for the building and the activities which take place within it has meant we've remained at the forefront of the artistic and social community in Torfaen for over 50 years.

We are creating a Digital Venue to further support our audiences and to extend our reach beyond the four walls of our Victorian home and into the lives of others. A key future commitment of ours is to develop the building itself, to increase its capacity, and radically improve access.

Our vision is to create a community that celebrates and supports talent and well-being in the visual arts, across Wales. Our mission is to support and inspire artists and audiences through creative learning, providing a place for civic engagement for the well-being of our communities, sharing the work of leading visual artists and makers from across Wales, the UK and internationally.

Our latest business plan is available via our website here.

Our governance structure

Llantarnam Grange is an incorporated charity, governed by a voluntary board of trustees. There are a maximum of nine Trustees that are appointed by the board of Llantarnam Grange, and a maximum of five that are appointed by the Borough and local Community Councils.

We also have a Youth Advisory Panel. Established in 2021, the 7 volunteers were recruited from our Criw Celf and Portal programmes. They enthusiastically support our work by offering ideas and solutions through practical activities and workshops. Their opinions are vital to our future because so much of our work is centred around supporting the creative development of young people.

Terms of Appointment
